PORTFOLIO

Hello! i'm

Putri Rahmadhani

A fresh graduate of Islamic Economics from the Faculty of Economics and Business who has completed the thesis defense and is currently awaiting graduation. Throughout my academic journey, I developed a strong interest in creative fields, especially graphic design and content creation.

Experienced in handling various campus activities and organizational projects, I am accustomed to working collaboratively, managing responsibilities, and creating engaging visual and digital content. Supported by good adaptability, creativity, and eagerness to learn, I am motivated to grow professionally in creative, branding, social media, or other related industries where I can further develop my skills and contribute effectively.
