INTRODUCTION

With a background in community operations, social media, event organizing, and strategic partnerships, I focus on building healthy, engaged, and sustainable communities. I am also experienced in contributing to DAO governance, community moderation, and coordinating between internal teams and global communities.

ABOUT ME

I am a multidisciplinary professional with experience across community management, DAO governance, operations, social media, event organizing, and security testing. I have worked closely with diverse teams and communities, taking an active role in managing day-to-day operations, fostering healthy engagement, and ensuring clear communication between stakeholders. My background includes contributing as a Community Manager at Project Namada and 4Everland, serving as an Ambassador for multiple projects, and participating as a Core DAO Team and governance contributor, where I support proposal reviews and collaborative decision making.

WORK EXPERIENCE
